

Radassié

SOFA

Radassié, from « radassa » in Provençal means to laze, to bask. An emblematic piece of Provence furniture, the Radassié MIDI favors the purity of lines and the harmony of tones. Made of natural oak from sustainably managed forests, its structure is composed of more than 40 pieces of wood, assembled and pegged by hand, with several seats attached to a single backrest made of woven straw from the banks of the Rhone, also by hand.
